this means that once the out-of-pocket maximum has been met, you have no more cost sharing for the remainder of the calendar year.

if fda finds a drug that is counterfeit or adulterated then by all means it should seize and destroy it.

fda responded by requiring merck, the maker of fosamax, to alter the warning label on the drug to advise that the drug carried a risk of atypical femur fractures.